

PARTICIPANTS

Elizabeth L. Auchincloss, M.D.

Senior Associate Director, Training and Supervising Analyst, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research; Vice-chair, Graduate Medical Education, Professor of Clinical Psychiatry, Department of Psychiatry, Weill Cornell Medical College.

Rosemary H. Balsam,
M.R.C.P.Ed, F.R.C.Psych.Lond.

Associate Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, Yale University Medical School; Staff Psychiatrist, Yale Department of Student Health and Counseling; Training and Supervising Analyst, Western New England Institute for Psychoanalysis.

Michael Feldman,
M. Phil., F.R.C.Psych., F. Inst. Psychoanal.

Training Analyst, British Psychoanalytical Society.

Richard C. Fritsch, Ph.D., ABPP

Director, Supervising and Training Analyst, Washington Psychoanalytic Institute.

Jay Greenberg, Ph.D.

Training and Supervising Analyst, William Alanson White Institute; Editor, The Psychoanalytic Quarterly.

Lucy LaFarge, M.D.

Editor for North America, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis; Training and Supervising Analyst, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research; Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, Weill Medical College of Cornell University.

Jonathan Lear, Ph.D.

Distinguished Service Professor, The University of Chicago; Recipient, The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation Distinguished Achievement Award.

Robert Michels, M.D.

Walsh McDermott University Professor, Cornell University; Supervising and Training Analyst, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research.

Roy Schafer, Ph. D.

Former Professor of Psychology in Psychiatry, Yale University Medical School, Cornell University Medical College; Former Training and Supervising Analyst, Western New England Psychoanalytic Institute, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research.

Henry Schwartz, M.D.

President, Association for Psychoanalytic Medicine; Faculty, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research; Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, New York University School of Medicine.

Marvin D. Wasserman, M.D.

Training and Supervising Analyst, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research; Associate Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons.

The Association for
Psychoanalytic Medicine

RETELLING AN ANALYTIC LIFE: a tribute to ROY SCHAFFER, Ph.D.

Sponsored by

THE ASSOCIATION FOR
PSYCHOANALYTIC MEDICINE

in collaboration with

Columbia University Center
for Psychoanalytic Training and Research

October 20, 2012
9:00 am – 4:30pm

Mount Sinai Medical Center
Stern Auditorium
1468 Madison Avenue (at East 101st Street)
New York, New York

Roy Schafer's distinguished career and prolific contributions to psychoanalytic theory and practice have had a profound influence on generations of analysts over the past fifty years. He has published nearly two hundred journal articles and books, received numerous awards and honorary lectureships, and been a venerated teacher and sought after supervisor.

Schafer always had a revolutionary side ready to challenge and push the limits of current theory and technique when clinical experience or logic dictated. For example, in an early seminal work he radically changed the interpretation of Rorschach testing by introducing psychoanalytic thinking to the process. He has consistently and courageously challenged, expanded, and revised long standing theories including some of his own (and those of Freud) when warranted. Perhaps the clearest example of this was when, after being one of the leading advocates for the usefulness of metapsychology, he reversed himself and became one of the most articulate proponents for abandoning that position and replacing it with a hermeneutic approach. He proposed a controversial alternative language for psychoanalysis and more recently played an instrumental role in bringing the contributions of British Kleinian analysts to mainstream Freudian analysis in America.

Schafer the trailblazer is the image of Schafer that usually comes to mind. However, he has always had another more conservative side that continued to espouse the centrality of selected core Freudian ideas. These include his maintaining that the narratives co-created by analysts and their patients in a Freudian analysis always follow familiar storylines that focus on "developmental vicissitudes and derivatives of conflictual infantile situations concerning sex and aggression", and his retaining the view that analyzing the multiple meanings of symptoms, character traits, dreams, parapraxes, fantasies, and bodily experiences is central to the analytic process.

In celebrating Roy Schafer's achievements, we are honored to have a truly distinguished group of speakers — all psychoanalytic stars in their own right. Their enthusiasm to accept our invitation is testimony to their respect for the impact his work has had on psychoanalytic thinking. They will discuss some of his most important contributions — ranging from his influence on psychological testing, to his then groundbreaking ideas on female development, to his incorporating influences from outside psychoanalysis especially philosophy, as well as describing his influence on their own clinical work.

We hope you will join us on this very special occasion.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

8:30-9:00

Registration

9:05-9:15

Marvin Wasserman, M.D.
Introduction

9:15-9:25

Henry Schwartz, M.D.
Roy Schafer: A Beginning

9:25-10:00

Richard C. Fritsch, Ph.D., ABPP
From 'Clinical sensibility to the Analytic Attitude'
Projective testing as the foundation for Roy Schafer's later contributions to the role, task and mind
of the psychoanalyst

10:00-10:35

Rosemary M. Balsam, M.R.C.P.Ed, F.R.C.Psych.Lond.
Appreciating Difference:
Roy Schafer on Psychoanalysis and Women

10:35-11:05

COFFEE BREAK

11:05-11:40

Jonathan Lear, Ph.D.
Bad Feelings

11:40-12:15

Lucy LaFarge, M.D.
The Second Self, the Second Reality

12:15-1:45

LUNCH

1:45-2:20

Michael Feldman, M. Phil., F.R.C.Psych., F. Inst. Psychoanal.
The Value of Uncertainty

2:20-2:55

Jay Greenberg, Ph.D.
Action, Agency, and Empathy:
Schafer on the Analyst's Dilemma

2:55-3:30

Robert Michels, M.D.
Roy Schafer: A Narrative

3:30-4:15

Panel Discussion with all Presenters
Moderator
Elizabeth L. Auchincloss, M.D.

4:15-4:30

Roy Schafer, Ph. D
Closing Remarks

SYMPOSIUM FEES

Early Registration - postmarked by September 15, 2012

General	$150
APM Members	$135
Candidates & Residents	$85
Full time Students (with I.D.)	$50

Registration - postmarked after September 15, 2012

General	$175
APM Members	$150
Candidates & Residents	$100
Full time Students (with I.D.)	$60

Registration -on Site

General	$200
APM Members	$160
Candidates & Residents	$120
Full time Students (with I.D.)	$70

CME certificate fee $25 (6 hours category 1 credit);
NASW CEU certificate fee $25 (7 CEUS)

REGISTRATION

Send this form with a self-addressed stamped envelope to:
Retelling an Analytic Life: A Tribute to Roy Schafer
Conference Registrar / Lawrence Schwartz Partners
25-79 31st Street, Astoria, NY 11102
E-mail: Psypsa@aol.com Phone / Fax: 718-728-7416

Name _____ Degree _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Telephone _____

E-mail _____ Affiliation _____

Charge my: Visa MasterCard American Express Card

Exp. Date _____ card ID # _____

Signature _____

Check enclosed (payable to The Association for Psychoanalytic Medicine)

Cancellation Policy: Refunds will be given less a $25 administration fee if request is received by email or in writing postmarked by October 13, 2012. After that date no refund will be given.

Symposium Committee

Edith Cooper and Marvin Wasserman, Co-Chairs;
Jane Halperin, Jules Kerman, Dionne Powell and Henry Schwartz